RIG FACTORY FOR RUSHVILLE

Can be Secured if the People Will Wake up And Get Busy.

WOULD EMPLOY ABOUT 300

And Build a Plant at a Cost of $350,-
000—One of The Many Opportunities Offered.

Opportunity knocks at the door of our city! It is louder than the knocks of the knockers and will we hear it and sing back a welcome? A big factory wants to locate in Rushville. Do we need it? If so let us get busy. The first thing necessary is an organization of the business men of Rushville. Then a lot sale. Other places have done it and are still doing it. So can we. We are as intelligent as the average, if we have not been in the progress procession for a few years.

Mayor Cowing received the following communication which ought to speak for itself:

Mayor H. M. Cowing, Rushville, Ind.
Dear Sir—How would a proposition like this interest your people?

We have a factory manufacturing heavy machinery such as engine and turret lathes. They are now located in Cincinnati employing about 150 skilled mechanics. They would increase this number of hands to about 300. They have plenty of money and are in good shape and would build buildings as follows:

Machine shop, 60x300, Foundry, 60x150, Warehouse, 60x150 and would install same with about $100,-000 worth of machinery. These buildings would be built of brick and with a sprinkler system. The entire plant would cost from three hundred to three hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Now you can see what a plant like this employing 150 men from the start would mean for your city and they would expect to double the number of employes within two years. Get busy on this proposition and see if we cannot have a lot sale at your city and pull it through.

Yours very truly,
UNITED INDUSTRIAL CO.,
Indianapolis Ind.

FOR THE SAKE OF OUR HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Everyone Should Take Part in the Clean-up Day "Exercises" on May 12.

CHILDREN CAN BE A POWER

On Clean-Up Day, May 12, don't stop with cleaning the surface. Throw away that old trash in the back yard and clean up the cellar.

An old adage that is appropriate to the occasion is "A stitch in time saves nine." By properly cleaning up the alleys and premises now contagious diseases which are engendered in dirt and trash may be avoided later on. Every resident of Rushville should lend a helping hand toward beautifying and purifying the home. The school children can be made a power in this work and under the direction of their teachers and parents they will accomplish much good.

Creators will be at Tomlinson hall Indianapolis tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night.

ORCHESTRA MAKES A HIT

The orchestra will furnish music for the following commencement exercises: Milroy, May 7; New Salem, May 14; Carthage, May 27; and a date with Knightstown that has not been definitely settled.

NEWSPAPER HAS A GOOD WORD FOR US

Greensburg News Says Daily Republican is One of Best Edited Papers in the State.

THE TRI KAPPA GIRLS STUNT

Just listen to what the Greensburg News says of our paper:

"The Rushville Republican, one of our most valued exchanges and clearly one of the best edited and managed papers in the State, without any exception, announces that for one day their paper will be turned over to the Tri Kappa Sorority, of that city, who will get out the Republican. Twenty-four young ladies of the sorority will collect the news, put it into shape, in fact will write up everything. The office force of the Republican will step out that day, decided for May 8, and the young ladies will run the paper, as they think a newspaper should be run."

The fish and game inspector will be here the first of next week to examine the streams of this vicinity. It is said that there is considerable large shipment of bass and perch fish to put in the streams around the city, and that that is the purpose of the inspectors proposed visit here. RUSHVILLE MUST HAVE A TREASURER

So Says M. V. Spivey, Present Incumbent, Who Has Read the New Law.

REASONS ARE POINTED OUT

City Treasurer M. V. Spivey says that there is no question as to whether Rushville shall have a city treasurer under the new law. He says he interprets the law as saying in plain English that every fourth and fifth class city having water and light plants or other public utilities shall have a city treasurer.

SHOOTING AFFAIR AT BUENA VISTA

Eighteen-Year-Old Boy Shoots
Young Man Who Went With His Sister.

TWO BULLETS TOOK EFFECT.

Young Fugitive is Run Down After an Exciting Chase by the Officers.

Late Wednesday afternoon a quarrel between two young men of the Buena Vista neighborhood was settled by Harry Gard, aged 18, shooting Harrison Davis, aged 20, says the Greensburg Review.

The difficulty occurred on the Buena Vista road, about a mile and a half east of Clarksburg. The weapon used was a Colt's revolver, and two bullets took effect in young Davis' jaw, knocking out several teeth and inflicting a serious wound.

The cause of the trouble is said to grow out of the fact that young Davis has been keeping company with young Gard's sister, but the grievance—whatever it may be—is not explained. It may be that the brother was actuated by a spirit of the unwritten law. However, until the circumstances have undergone a judicial investigation, it were well to withhold speculation.

Charles Davis, the father of the victim of the tragedy, came to Greensburg and filed an affidavit charging assault with intent to kill against Harry Gard before Mayor F. M. Thompson.

Immediately Sheriff S. N. Patterson, accompanied by assistant prosecutor Rollind Turner, started in quest of the accused man, and naturally went to his home near Buena Vista. Meantime Sheriff James A. Ferris, of Franklin county and Marshal Calvin Buell of Laurel, Ind., were giving chase to the fugitive. They overhauled him near Kingston and brought him to Greensburg and he was placed in jail.

The Franklin county officers left their rigs here in care of Sheriff Patterson and returned home by rail. The horses driven by them were completely jaded and unable to make the return drive to Brookville.

FIRST OIL IS SENT THROUGH NEW LINE

Test Made of Tidewater Pipe Line
Which Runs Through Rush
County.

IT IS LARGEST IN THE WORLD

The official test of the Tidewater Pipeline company's new 565 miles pipe line, which crosses the north-western part of Rush county, running from the Illinois oil fields through Indiana and Ohio to Brad-dock, Pa., was made this week. The big six-inch pipe line with various pumping stations and a private tele-graph line was in readiness for the first turn of the wheels and sent the oil coursing through the $5,000,000 investment of the company which is the largest pipe-line in the country.

READY TO SPREAD IT.

Tom Hiner has received his oil and will begin to spread it on the streets as soon as the weather permits and the dust again creates a demand.

MAY WEATHER PROMISE BAD

While Hicks Says it Will Be More Placid Than April, Still—

SAME OLD GRUNT IS GIVEN

Thick, Prolonged Cloudiness With Storms Ever and Anon Are Guaranteed by the Prophet.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks hands out the following weather for the month of May:

"A reactionary storm period is in progress as May comes in. Low barometer, cloudiness and rain will pass eastwardly over the country from the 1st to the 3rd, breaking into electrical storms in many localities on the 2d.

A regular storm period is central on the 6th, covering the 4th to the 8th. By the 5th western sections will show a decided rise in temperature, with corresponding fall of the barometer. Cloudiness and rain will attend and move promptly eastward over the country during the 6th, 7th and 8th. The Mars period will practically fade out after this period, although its presence may be noticeable up to the 20th. A decided change to cooler with probable frost at night, will set in behind the storms to the westward about the 7th, and during the 8th, 9th and 10th this change to fair, cooler weather sides of storm areas.

A reactionary storm period falls on the 11th, 12th and 13th, but for the fact that all central parts of our continent are in the focus of solar energy, storm producing causes about at the minimum at this period.

A regular storm period will be in force from the 15th to the 20th, having its center on the 18th. Change to higher barometer and much cooler will be natural from about the 20th to the 23d, the change of course, passing progressively from west to east, carrying with it fair and clearing weather.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 23d, 24th and 25th. The storm diagram shows that this period is at the center of the Mercury period, which facts increases the changes of active disturbances at this time. Thick, prolonged cloudiness, with storm procyms of the storm days, are characteristic of the Mercury period.

HALF HORSE, HALF REINDEER

Monstrosity Was Born on the Amos Farm Yesterday Evening.

A freak colt was born, but died soon afterwards on the Amos farm, south of this city yesterday. It had an abnormal head that looked more like a reindeer than a horse. The ears were those of a cow. After Wallace made a photograph of the monstrosity, Dr. Davis sent the head to a veterinary college in Indianapolis.

COMING FOR THE BIG CHARITY BALL

Mayor Barrows Will Head the Con-nersville "Home Seekers" Here
Next Wednesday Night.

DOES NOT WEAR A VAN DYKE

Mayor Fred Barrows, one of Connersville leading citizens, being a bashful, buoyant bachelor banker, will head a little coterie of Connersville chaps who are regular callers on Rushville girls, and attend the Charity Ball here next Wednesday night. His Honor, the Mayor does not wear the mask of Van Dyke anymore and will come with an open countenance. While he does not dance much, Mayor Barrows will be found mingling copiously and walking "amosly" about the ball-room.

HEAVY WIND COME WITH RAIN STORM

Atmosphere Had a "Feeling and Odor" of a Cyclone in it—
Downpour of Rain.

GRAND ELECTRICAL DISPLAY

One of the most disagreeable storms of the year was the wind and rain disturbance of Thursday night. From ten o'clock on until an early hour this morning the imps of darkness held full sway and gave vent to their feelings in driving blasts of rain and gusts of wind that threatened to lift buildings from their foundations. The rain crept beneath windows and doors effecting considerable damage. The skies lit up intermittently with vivid flashes of lightning.

GRAND THEATRE TO BE CLOSED TONIGHT

Manager Carr Will Give Last Performance Tonight—Will Open a New Theater.

GETTING ON GROUND FLOOR

The Grand theater will close after tonight's performance as a moving picture house. The manager, Grand M. Carr is fitting out a theater on the ground floor, in the old Exchange bar room, and says he will put in a place that Rushville can well feel proud of. Mr. Carr says he is extremely grateful to his many patrons and wants to see them all—and as many new ones as possible—at his new place when the doors are opened.

PAVING CASE IS NOW WITH HANNA

Special Judge Heard Arguments Until Nine O'clock Last Night in the Circuit Court.

ATTORNEYS HAVE A WRANGLE

A. B. Irvin and County Attorney J. A.
Titsworth Put on the Gloves—
Decision in Two Weeks.

The argument in the street paving case heard before Special Judge Hanna continued until nine o'clock last night in the circuit court. The burden of the argument by the remonstrator's attorneys rested on the declaration that the law was unconstitutional. At the close of the legal battle long briefs were given the judge and he will not give any decision in the case for several days and possibly not for two weeks.

At times the argument was spirited and the court was obliged to admonish the attorneys regarding certain rights and utterances. Petitioner A. B. Irvin filed a verified motion to require Attorney Titsworth to show his authority for appearing in the case. The court sustained the motion and Titsworth was obliged to file his affidavit of authority to appear for the remonstrators. Mr. Irvin said he could not understand how the county attorney and advisor of the county commissioners, who gave legal advice to that body when they had the case under consideration, would now be allowed to appear in the case in the circuit court. Mr. Irvin was very much wrought up over the circumstances and threatened to bring disbarment proceedings against Mr. Titsworth.

From present indications it looks as if we are going to have the brick streets, even if a small coterie of men are determined on fighting the case to the last ditch. The supporters of the improvement are among the very best people in the community and there are none who can successfully and consistently argue that the improvement is not needed and that it is not equitable. The county commissioners made a mistake in turning the proposition down after they had, on several occasions, and recently, granted similar requests for out townships.

The contracts for big pike improvements in Rush county were awarded under the same law as the brick streets would be constructed. Take the Milroy pike, for instance, it will cost in the neighborhood of $55,000, and how can the county commissioners—or any other persons—be consistent, declaring the law unconstitutional after they have granted petitions under the very same act? If the Milroy pike or the Winship pike was needed, then it was alright to have them constructed. But Main and Second streets should be improved under the same law and "by the same token it will be."

The few who are opposing the improvement, will, in reality, be benefited most.

PROTECTED BY LAW.

It has been reported to City Marshal Price that a number of boys are guilty of killing robins with "nigger shooters." If apprehended they will be dealt with severely. Robins are protected by law.

AVERAGE MAJORITY FOR "DRYS" IS HIGH

Will Exceed 1352 While the Average "Wet" Majority For Three Counties is 342.

DELAWARE COUNTY LEADS LIST

Forty-eight counties in the State have held local option elections and of this number forty-five have voted "dry" and three "wets."

It will be interesting to know, by what a large majority these forty-five counties went "dry." The figures at hand show that the average "dry" majority for the forty-five counties is 1325, while the average "wet" majority of the three "wet" counties is only 342.

Delaware county has the head-mark thus far, having turned Montgomery county down by 384 votes.

Ohio remains at the foot of the class having the small majority of only 28 "dry" votes.

People Wednesday were very much surprised at the large "dry" majority given by Delaware county. The Republican was kept busy answering phone calls, and people then when given the report would hang up the receiver doubting much. Some hung up the receiver before receiving the full report.

Sick headaches are caused by indigestion and a general disturbed condition of the stomach. Cure the indigestion, and the headache, nausea, heartburn, sour stomach, and that "all in" feeling will vanish.

Mi-o-na tablets will cure indigestion or any other stomach trouble. They will relieve almost instantly. F. B. Johnson & Co. has so much faith in them that he will give you your money back if they don't.

Mi-o-na cures by making the stomach strong enough to produce enough to produce enough gastric juices to digest all the food you want to eat. It promptly puts new life and energy into the overworked and played-out walls of the stomach.

Use Mi-o-na for a week, and you can eat what you want any time you want it, and take pleasure in doing it.

Your blood will be richer, redder, purer after taking Mi-o-na, and it only costs 50 cents a large box.

"I was speedily cured of stomach complaint by Mi-o-na. Anything I can say in favor of Mi-o-na is not too strong."—William Hess, Benton Harbor, Mich.

For Woman's Eye.

Something very nice for street wear without a coat is a dress of fine French serge, either black and white striped or checked.

Tan coverts are very prominent, with Shantung, black and white checks for automobile and general wear.

In silk dresses, Shantung, tussor, crepe de metior and crepe charmeuse are being called upon the most.

To be dressy at the seashore and summer resort one must wear lace coats and thin capes.

Linens and lingerie are excellent for informal wear.

Smart Tips For Men

In shoes there is a tendency toward a narrower toe. Green shoes in suede and vicci are also shown.

Some negligee shirts are shown without the customary central plait and are even devoid of stitching along the line of the buttonholes.

In collars the close fold front still obtains. In some of these there is a slight spread at the bottom by rounding the tabs, and thus the cravat creeps out.

Crocheted and knitted ties are very popular. The bow tie is coming back into favor.

It Is Said That ---

Many a man will take on a sour look when asked to do something for sweet charity.

Homer Brown got hurt from "monkeying" with a wrench.

While they are going to sing "Under a Merry Widow Hat" at the motion theater tonight still there will be a number of fellows "cussing" them.

It is pretty hard to get people to think much of a man whose wife insists that she made him what he is.

There will be two Clean-Up days—May 12 and then the next day, circus day.

A number of lawns are getting their first hair cut and shave.

The Charity ball was started a rolling today.

The final crash is always the big noise.

When a man gives more than a dollar to charity he usually manages to get caught in the act.

Some of the old timers want to have an old fashioned quadrille at the Charity Ball.

The shooting scrape near Clarksburg caused the smallpox quarantine to be lifted.

A real clever man or woman makes it a business to appear dense at times.

SUPPOSED MAD DOG CAUSED A SCARE

FOUGHT AND BIT ANOTHER DOG

A mad dog scare was experienced in the vicinity of the Graham school this forenoon. A fine bird dog, foaming and frothing at the mouth was acting in a mysterious manner for several hours and later bit another dog. Anxious mothers were quick to put their children under lock and key. The dog was finally driven out of the city after some of the determined neighbors fired a few shots at it.

STRAWBERRY CROP BELOW STANDARD

Drought of Last Fall Has Proven Injurious to That Toothsome Delicacy.

BUT A HALF CROP EXPECTED

An expert on the condition of fruit buds says it is satisfactory generally but as concerning tree fruits and bush berries, the mild winter prevented the trees from remaining frozen long and this fact has added to the welfare of trees and plants. The strawberries are not found to be in as good condition as the other fruits. The long drought of last fall prevented the runners taking root and this fact has cut down the number of new plants. It is now believed that not more than half a crop of strawberries may be expected.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

ALWAYS A HANDICAP.

(Connersville News.)

It is rumored that the Rushville Democrat has been encountering reverses and that a receiver is about to be appointed for it in a few days. The Democrat was created by absorbing three newspaper plants some time ago and reducing the number of papers to two dailies with one outside weekly, for Rushville. The plant is owned by a number of stockholders, which is always a handicap to a newspaper, as many men are usually of many minds.

ATTRACTING ATTENTION.

(Columbus Republican.)

About twenty members of the Rushville chapter of Tri Kappa have decided to enter the field of journalism. On Saturday, May 8, they will be given full charge of the Rushville Republican, and will get out the paper that day. The entire force of the Republican will step down and out, and the girls will write every line that appears in the issue. The girls are now dividing their chapter into departments, so that a certain few will write editorials, others will write society, court, and there will be plenty of work left for the ordinary reporters to do.

SAME OLD BEAR STORY.

(Columbus Republican.)

According to predictions made by local fruit growers, apple pie will be at a premium in Bartholomew county this year. In fact, one well known and widely experienced fruit grower ventured the prediction this morning that there would not be enough apples raised with which to make one pie for each family in the county. Apples are now as high in Columbus as are oranges and next year they promise to be even more expensive. The recent freezes and frosts are said to have put the apples out of commission. What few apples that may survive will be of the earliest varieties. Peaches, pears, cherries, plums and other fruit are said to be but little damaged by the recent freezes and frosts and the crops promise well. The frost of this week is said to have killed first blooms on all of the earlier varieties of strawberries, but this does not mean much of a shortage in the strawberry crop, as the bulk of the crop in this county is obtained from later varieties. Other berries and also vegetables promise well.

Are True Economy

Style, a good figure, poise and health, should come first in consideration when you buy a corset.

Think of price afterwards. But judging from a standpoint of simple money-saving, the Gossard is the corset for you, Madam.

One $5.00 Gossard Corset will outwear three ordinary $2.00 corsets—you are, therefore, really money ahead.

And think of the superior style, snap—the luxurious support—how it rests and beautifies the back—the marked improvement it will make even in the most beautiful figure.

There is a Gossard model for every figure. For the woman who is stout, there is a model which molds her form into perfect symmetry, while it reveals the long, slender, hipless lines of the prevailing fashion.

For the slender figures, there are corrective models with softened lines which by inducing proper standing position, impart poise, compel deep breathing and straight shoulders

THE Gossard CORSETS "They lace In Front"

The Gossard Corset is the Americanized development of "L'Inresistible," the original front-lacing corset—designed by Madame Consuello Foulde de Grasse and created for her by Madame Margaine La Croix. It is the only corset which insures and absolutely fixes the shapely fashionable habit back. It is the only corset perfectly adapted to wear with the new gowns because it molds the figure into the coveted long-waisted, flat hip effect so fashionable today.

Come and see the new models and meet the expert corsetiere who is here to assist you in securing the proper model and a perfect fit.

Mrs. Lillie B. Poundstone

The Shoery

Dr. Pierce's Health Talks

The miracle of motherhood is often overshadowed by the misery of motherhood. The great functional changes which are incident to child bearing leave their mark for life on many a mother. Some women offer up their lives as a sacrifice on the altar of motherhood. A far greater number live on in ceaseless misery. Their strength fails, their beauty fades, they have no ambition and no enjoyment in life. To every woman

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Offers escape from the pains and perils of motherhood. Taken during the period of waiting and anticipation this medicine strengthens the body, nourishes the nerves, and prepares the whole womanly system for the coming of baby. It also insures an abundant supply of nourishment for the child.

The mind feels bright and buoyant. There is no anxiety, no dread, but in its place a happy anticipation of the baby's coming, which counts for the future happiness of the child unborn. The use of "Favorite Prescription" makes the baby's advent easy, and gives abundant vitality to nursing mothers.

There is no alcohol or habit-forming drugs in "Favorite Prescription." It is a purely vegetable medicine.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing "just as good" for weak and sickly women. All its ingredients printed on its bottle-wrapper.

The larger success of doctor or druggist is never won by putting love for the dollar above duty to the sick. Protecting the sick, giving them what they ask for when Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is called for, will enrich him in respect, if it does not swell to the utmost his profits.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

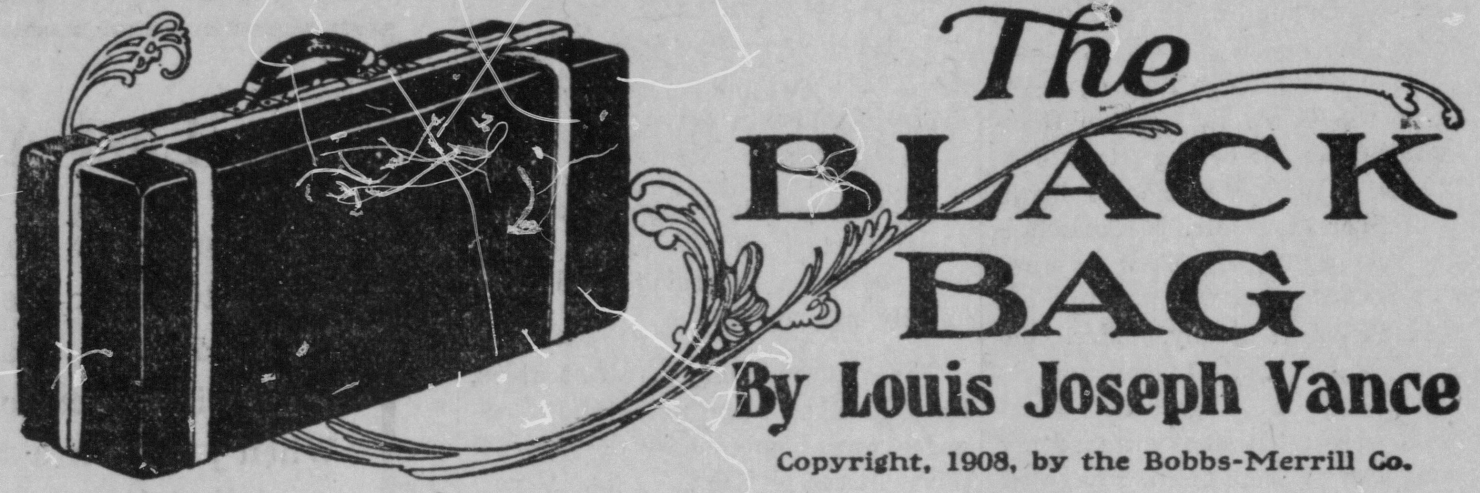

If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Brise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

"By your father's grace I came with him," he said. "You ran away without saying good night, you know, and I'm a jealous creditor."

She laughed excitedly, turning to Calendar. "But you were to meet me at Mrs. Hallam's?"

"Mulready was good enough to try to save me the trouble, my dear. He's an unselfish soul, Mulready. Fortunately it happened that I came along not five minutes after he'd carried you off. How was that, Dorothy?"

Her glance wavered uneasily between the two, Mulready and her father. The former, shrugging to declare his indifference, turned his back squarely upon them. She frowned.

"He came out of Mrs. Hallam's and got into the four wheeler, saying you had sent him to take your place and would join us on the Althea."

"So! How about it, Mulready?"

The man swung back slowly. "What you choose to think," he said after a deliberate pause.

"Well, never mind! We'll go over the matter at our leisure on the Althea."

There was in the adventurer's tone a menace, bitter and not to be ignored, which Mulready saw fit to challenge.

"I think not," he declared. "I think not. I'm weary of your adle pated suspicions. It'd be plain to any one but a fool that I acted for the best interests of all concerned in this matter. If you're not content to see it in that light I'm done."

"Oh, if you want to put it that way I'm not content, Mr. Mulready," retorted Calendar dangerously.

"Please yourself. I bid you good evening and—goodby." The man took a step toward the stairs.

Calendar dropped his right hand into his topcoat pocket. "Just a minute," he said sweetly, and Mulready stopped. Abruptly the fat adventurer's smoldering resentment leaped in flame. "That will be about all, Mr. Mulready! 'Bout face, you hound, and get into that boat! D'you think I'll temporize with you till doomsday? Then forget it. You're wrong, dead wrong. Your bluff's called, and—with an evil chuckle—"I hold a full house, Mulready—every chamber taken." He lifted meaningfully the hand in the coat pocket. "Now, in with you!"

With a grin and a swagger of pure bravado Mulready turned and obeyed. Unnoticed of any save perhaps Calendar himself the boat had drawn in at the stage a moment earlier. Mulready dropped into it and threw himself sullenly upon the midships thwart.

"Now, Dorothy, in you go, my dear," nodded Calendar, with a self-satisfied wag of his head.

Half dazed, to all seeming, she moved toward the boat. With clumsy and assertive gallantry her father stepped before her, offering his hand—his hand which she did not touch, for in the act of descending she remembered and swung impulsively back to Kirkwood.

"Good night, Mr. Kirkwood. Good night. I shan't forget."

He took her hand and bowed above it, but when his head was lifted he still retained her fingers in a lingering clasp.

"Good night," he said reluctantly. In a sudden flush of daring he turned and nodded coolly to Calendar. "With your permission," he said negligently and drew the girl aside to the angle of the stairway.

"Miss Calendar"—he began, but was interrupted.

"Here—I say!"

Calendar had started toward him angrily.

Kirkwood, calmly waved him back. "I want a word in private with your daughter, Mr. Calendar," he announced, with quiet dignity. "I don't think you'll deny me. I've saved you some slight trouble tonight."

Disgruntled, the adventurer paused. "Oh, all right," he grumbled. He returned to the boat.

"Forgive me, Miss Calendar," continued Kirkwood nervously. "I know I've no right to interfere, but—"

"Yes, Mr. Kirkwood?"

"But hasn't this gone far enough?" he bemoaned unhappily. "I can't like the look of things. Are you sure—sure that it's all right—with you, I mean?"

She did not answer at once, but her eyes were kind and sympathetic. He plucked heart of their tolerance.

"It isn't too late yet," he argued. "Let me take you to your friends—you must have friends in the city. But this—this midnight flight down the Thames, this atmosphere of stealth and suspicion, this—"

"But my place is with my father, Mr. Kirkwood," she interposed. "I don't doubt him, dare I?"

"I suppose not."

"So I must go with him. I'm glad—thank you for caring, dear Mr. Kirkwood. And again good night."

"Good luck attend you," he muttered, following her to the boat.

Calendar helped her in and turned back to Kirkwood with a look of arch triumph. Kirkwood wondered if he had overheard. Whether or no, he could afford to be magnanimous. Seizing Kirkwood's hand, he pumped it vigorously.

"My dear boy, you've been an angel in disguise. And I guess you think me the devil in masquerade." He chuckled, in high conceit with himself over the turn of affairs. "Good night and—fare thee well!" He dropped into the boat, seating himself to face the recalcitrant Mulready. "Cast off, there!"

The boat dropped away, the oars lifting and falling. With a weariful sense of loneliness and disappointment Kirkwood hung over the rail to watch them out of sight.

Somewhat wearily the young man released the railing and ascended the stairs. "And that is the end!" he told himself, struggling with an acute sense of personal injury. He had been hardly used. For a few hours his life had been lightened by the ineffable glamour of romance. Mystery and adventure had engaged him. He had served a fair woman and been associated with men whose ways, however questionable, were the ways of courage, hedged thickly about with perils.

Disconsolate and aggrieved, he gained the street. He was miles from St. Pancras, foot weary, to all intents and purposes lost.

In this extremity chance smiled upon him. The caddy who at his initial instance had traveled this weary way from Quadrant mews, after the manner of his kind, ere turning back had sought succor of fatigue at the nearest public. From afar Kirkwood saw the four wheeler at the curb and made all haste toward it.

Entering the gin mill, he found the caddy, scotched him with bitter and, instructing him for St. Pancras with all speed, dropped, limp and listless with fatigue, into the conveyance.

UNUSUAL TEST OF RADIUM.

Tiny Speck Worth $5,000 Sewed Into Woman to Cure Cancer.

I have recently been informed of an extraordinary effort to cure that most dreadful of all diseases—cancer.

Twenty-five thousand francs' worth of radium have been sewn up in a woman at the Institute Pasteur. It is said that she will be cured of cancer in this way. If the case is successful the great curative value of this wonderful metal will be assured. Nor will the cost of the cure be prohibitive, for the radium can be used again and again without diminishing its curative properties.

The cure is being attempted by the famous specialist, Dr. Roux, who has become Pasteur's natural successor. Although his experiment has just been attempted and only time can show the results, scientists have expressed great confidence in it. His method was surprisingly simple.

He took a tiny glass tube and inserted into it a speck of radium no bigger than a pin's head, but worth 25,000 francs. This tube was inserted in the stomach of a poor woman afflicted with cancer. He then carefully sewed up the wound, kept the patient under observation for forty-eight hours until the wound began to heal and recently announced that if in a month no mortification or sign of inflammation was left it would mean that the cancer had disappeared.

According to competent authorities such a cure is possible, if not probable. —Marquis de Castellane, Paris Cor. New York American.

SKIN DISEASES

Their Cause and Effect.

We not infrequently hear persons afflicted with chronic Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, etc., say they have expended from $100.00 to $300.00 in doctor bills and remedies, and invariably the treatment has been external—an ointment or a lotion. No consideration or attention was paid to the blood—the source from which the skin derives nourishment. In answer to the question, "Did you derive any benefit from such treatment?" "Oh yes, it cured the disease for a month or two and then it broke out worse than ever." The reason of this should be readily understood by any intelligent person, and is the difference between cause and effect. Had the disease been attacked in the blood, which is the cause of these skin and blood diseases, these sufferers would have had a different story to tell. Dr. Taylor's Remedy eliminates the poison from the blood—removes the cause—and the effect of this poison readily disappears from the surface of the skin. Guaranteed to cure. Send to our office, 1330 Arch St., Philadelphia, for booklet. Sold by F. B. Johnson & Co., and all first class druggists.

There would be a warm welcome for Barnabas and Saul from the Christians at Antioch on their return from Jerusalem, and John Mark, Barnabas sister's son, whom they had brought with them (xii, 25), would probably find himself in a different atmosphere from that at Jerusalem and must have been much helped by the companionship of his uncle, Barnabas, and by fellowship with such teachers as those here mentioned and by the zeal of these warm hearted believers. They ministered to the Lord and fasted

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION.

Advice Against the Use of Harsh
Purgatives and Physics.

A doctor's first question when consulted by patients is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments cause chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, hardens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

We have a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies. We urge you to try them at our entire risk.

Rexall Orderlies are very pleasant to take, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects, and they may be taken at any time without any inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the drugging habit and cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price, 36 tablets, 25c, and 12 tablets, 10c. Lytle's Drug Store, Third and Main St.

The things of this world were nothing in comparison with the things of the kingdom, and food for the body was wholly secondary when the pure bread and water of life was to be had. Some who read can understand. Although it means much to minister to the Lord, even a child can do it (I Sam. iii, 1). I have often been impressed with this in considering the matter of ministering to the Lord—that the eight words "that they may minister in the priest's office" (Ex. xxviii, 2, 3, 4, 41, and many other places) are a translation of a little Hebrew word of three letters, and I have asked myself, Does it take as much of earth's language to open to us the little words of heaven? For we have no record of any language but Hebrew having been spoken by the Lord from heaven.

Well, I am sure that it means more than any of us know to "minister to the Lord." In the great book of worship, Leviticus, it is well to mark the phrases "unto the Lord" and "before the Lord," and when they become daily mottoes with us we shall know more of true ministry. While they were ministering the Holy Ghost said, "Separate Me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them" (verse 2). Here we have the whole of these chapters in one sentence and the whole of every true Christian life set apart for the Lord, separated from the world and self and sin, to do the will of God, to work the works which are beforehand prepared for us (Eph. ii, 10; Phil. ii, 13; Heb. xiii, 21). So they, sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed. When we are sent of God we always have His assurance, "Certainly I will be with thee" (Ex. iii, 12; Judg. vi, 16), and it is only by His assurance that we will be separated from all things and people not of Him (Ex. xxxiii, 16; I Kings viii, 53). If we would know God as our Father and as the Lord Almighty, the mighty God who is all sufficient for us, and have others see that we are His sons and daughters to His glory, He dwelling in us and walking in us, we must be willing to be separated from all things unto Himself (II Cor. vi, 16-18). The Holy Ghost having set them apart, the believers by fasting and prayer united with Him in this consecration of their beloved teachers to a foreign mission. They might have said: We cannot spare them. We need them so much here. What shall we do without them? But they agreed with God and let them go and must have been specially blessed in giving to God the best they had. How honored these two men were in being named by God for this ministry! Even the longest journeys are made very little of in Scripture, for what is a journey round the world even when compared with coming from heaven to earth, which angels accomplish as swiftly as the lightning? They leave Antioch and are next at Salamis, in Cyprus, without any details as to the journey. The word is preached in the synagogues at Salamis, but no statement as to results. Whether we see results or not, we can always rest on Isa. lv, 11; Jer. i, 12, R. V. They passed through the island to Paphos and found the deputy of the country eager to hear the word of God, but hindered by a Jew, a false prophet and a sorcerer, who sought to turn away the deputy from the faith.

Saul, who is now for the first time called Paul, being filled with the Spirit, spoke as plainly to him as did our Lord to the Pharisees in John viii, 44, and in the name of the Lord caused him to be blind for a season. The power of God thus manifest and the true doctrine taught by Paul wrought upon the deputy that he became a believer.

God is the God of truth. Jesus Christ is the truth. The Spirit is the spirit of truth. There is no righteousness that can abide in the presence of God but that which God has provided. All that is not of God is of the devil. Consider, then, in the light of these facts, how the way of the Lord and the word of the Lord and the gospel of God concerning His Son are perverted by an ever increasing number of those who are called ministers of the gospel and are paid for preaching the gospel and teaching the truth (Jer. xxiii, 36; Gal. i, 7). Though there may be no Spirit filled Paul to speak plainly to them, God Himself will deal with them in His time. The expression "the hand of the Lord" recalls Ex. viii, 22, "The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek Him, but His power and His wrath is against all them that forsake Him." From even this much of the story of this journey we may learn that Spirit filled messengers of God must expect the opposition of the devil!

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week
Beginning May 2, 1909.

By REV. S. H. DOYLE.
Topic—Life lessons from the book of Isaiah.—Isa. vi, 1-9.

The book of Isaiah! The mere mention of this literary masterpiece, this gospel of the Old Testament, which speaks of the birth of the Messiah, describes his life and pictures his crucifixion as if the author's words might have been historic instead of prophetic, should thrill us with reverence for his great genius as a writer, his noble consecration to God, and bring our own souls into closer touch with our Divine Lord and Saviour.

Isaiah was not the first of the prophets, but his writings are placed first because of their superior character to those of all other Hebrew prophets. He prophesied during "the reigns Uzzah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah." These were times of great material prosperity in Judah, but great spiritual decline. In the first chapter of his book we find the moral and spiritual corruption portrayed as only a master of literature could do it. Human language could scarcely describe the awful conditions that prevailed. At this time also Judah faced captivity in Babylon. This fact gave Isaiah his great opportunity for seeing in the ultimate return of Judah the salvation of all through the Messiah, the Christ, the true "servant of the Lord."

The book of Isaiah may be divided into three parts:

First.—Prophetic, chapters i-xxxv. The main enemy of Judah in this part was Assyria.

Second.—Historical, chapters xxxvi-xxxix. These chapters contain a plain and simple history of the reign of Hezekiah.

Third.—Prophetic, chapters xl-lxvi. In this part Babylon is the chief enemy of Israel.

Both part first and part third are messianic in character. In part first the Messiah is presented as a mighty king and ruler. "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon His shoulder, and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace" (Isa. ix, 6, a passage from part first). Part second presents the Christ as a suffering victim, an atoning sacrifice, a meek and lowly Redeemer. The best illustration of this character of part second is found in Isa. liii, which should be carefully read by every Endeavorer in part preparation for this service.

In these prophecies of Isaiah great moral and spiritual truths stand out. He denounces sin and pleads for righteousness. At the same time he speaks almost like one of the evangelists in his references to Christ. His book has therefore been called "the fifth gospel." 1. Moral and political teachings. These pervade his book throughout. He calls upon Israel to cease to do evil and learn to do good. He declares that, though their sins may be as scarlet, yet they may be forgiven. He calls upon the sinner to forsake his ways and the unrighteous man his thoughts and turn to God, who will abundantly pardon. 2. Denunciation of idolatry.

Local Churches Sunday School Lesson Christian Endeavor

In the time of Ahaz gross idolatry was practiced. Isaiah severely denounced it and saw it overthrown in the good King Hezekiah's reign. But it was restored under Manasseh. 3. He spoke of the coming Messiah and indicated His true character. This is the greatest value of his book and what gives it its highest standing. 4. Isaiah also declared salvation to the gentiles. As Paul was the apostle to the gentiles, Isaiah was their prophet. Frequent passages refer to their coming to Mount Zion, and in direct language he emphasized his prophecy. Paul quotes Isaiah as saying (referring to chapter xi): "There shall be a root out of Jesse, and He shall rise to rule over the gentiles. In Him shall the gentiles hope" (Rom. xv, 12).
